Article 7 (Accounting Process) The accounting process for corporate cards shall be as follows:

1. 2. The department in charge of accounting shall pay the amount owed to the credit card company on the due date after reviewing the transaction document.

Article 8 (Administrative Matters)

① When a corporate card can no longer be used because of a card holder’s resignation or change in position, the card holder must request an administrative action after completing the settlement of account for any remaining balance in cooperation with the relevant department and return the corporate card to the department in charge of accounting.

② If a settlement of account for a corporate card is not completed within two months of a transaction, administrative actions including suspension of the card may take place.

Article 9 (Monitoring of Corporate Card Usage) The department in charge of accounting shall review the details of corporate card usage to verify whether or not a corporate card is being used appropriately. If illegitimate use is found, appropriate follow-up measures shall be taken.
