Chapter 1 General Provisions

Article 1 (Purpose) These regulations seek to ensure the unified, efficient operation of the various committees established at Pohang University of Science and Technology (hereinafter referred to as “University”).

Article 2 (Application Scope) Every committee established in the University shall apply these regulations except as otherwise specified. (Amended August 1, 2017)

Article 3 (Permission for Establishment) An office wishing to establish a committee shall obtain approval from the President of the University in advance. (Amended December 1, 2009)

Article 4 (Division) A committee shall consist of University Approvals Committee, established and operated in accordance with statutes of the higher rank and the University rules and regulations, and an Ad Hoc Committee, operated temporarily with a separate approval. (Amended August 1, 2017)

Article 4-1 (Composition) ① A committee shall have a chair; if necessary, it may have a vice chair or standing members.

② If necessary for its particular duties, a committee may have a Subcommittee, temporarily operated for specific objectives, or a Sectional Committee, operated separately depending on professional fields. (Amended August 1, 2017)

Article 5 (Appointment and Term of Office) ① The chair of a committee shall be appointed by the President of the University; the vice chair of the committee and its members shall be appointed by the President of the University with a recommendation from the chair of the committee.

② An ex officio member’s term of office shall be equal to the incumbency of the member’s position; an appointed committee member’s term of office shall be two years; the term of office of a committee member who is appointed to fill a vacancy shall be the remaining term of his/her predecessor. If deemed necessary for the operation of a committee, however, the term of office may be set separately. (Amended December 1, 2009) (Amended October 26, 2016)

Article 6 (Duties of the Chair of the Committee) The chair of a committee shall oversee the committee’s affairs and represent the committee.

Article 6-2 (Acting Chair of the Committee) ① If the chair of a committee is absent, the vice-chair, a member designated by the chair of the committee, or the chair’s immediate senior shall be an acting chair of the committee. (Established October 23, 2015)

② If a member is absent, the chair of a committee may grant the attendance of his/her substitute within the scope of not going against the intent of member appointing authorities. (Established August 1, 2017)

Article 7 (Convening a Meeting and Passing a Resolution) ① A committee meeting shall be convened by the chair of a committee; if requested by one-third or more of the members currently holding a seat in the committee or the President of the University, the chair of the committee shall convene a meeting without delay.

Article 8 (Secretary and Clerk) ① A secretary and a clerk may be appointed to assist a committee in handling with its affairs.

② The director of the team in charge of the relevant work shall be appointed as secretary.
