Established Dec. 3, 1986
Amended May 29, 1989
Amended Apr. 1, 1991
Amended Mar. 4, 1999

Chapter 1 General Provisions

Article 1 (Purpose) These regulations stipulate detailed standards and processes for student activities pursuant to Article 72 of the Statutes of Pohang University of Science and Technology.

Article 2 (Objectives) The objectives of student activities in the University shall be to fulfill the missions in the University's founding tenets by promoting academic excellence and to become excellent scientists and engineers by enhancing their cultural refinement and emotional maturity.

Chapter 2 Student Organizations

Article 3 (Definition and Classification of Student Organizations) ① Student organizations collectively refer to student groups under the Undergraduate Student Association of the University.

② Matters concerning the establishment and activities of a student body shall be governed by these regulations unless specifically provided for otherwise.

Article 4 (Registration Requirements) Each student organization shall meet the following requirements:

1. A student organization must pursue student activities that conform to the Statutes of Pohang University of Science and Technology and the Constitution of the Undergraduate Student Association.
2. A student club must have a minimum of 15 members and appoint a faculty advisor.

Article 5 (Registration Process) A person wishing to form a student organization shall prepare the following documents and submit them to the Undergraduate Student Affairs Team within 30 days of the start of each academic year:

1. Student organization registration form
2. Written consent from the faculty advisor
3. List of members and written pledges
4. Membership policies or bylaws of the organization
5. Organizational Chart

6. Activity and financial report for the previous year
7. Activity plan and statement of budget for the current year

Article 6 (Approval) A student organization that has completed the registration process specified in Article 5 shall be recognized as an official student organization from the date of approval and notice by the Vice President of Admissions and Student Affairs following deliberations by the Student Affairs Committee.

Article 7 (Faculty Advisor) ① The faculty advisor of each student organization shall guide and foster the student organization in a healthy and sound manner and shall assume the responsibility of supervising the activities of the student organization.

② When a faculty advisor is unable to supervise a student organization due to a long-term overseas business trip or for other reasons, he/she must arrange for another professor to act on his/her behalf during the specific period of time and notify the Vice President of Admissions and Student Affairs of the arrangement.

Article 8 (Period of Recognition) A student organization's registration shall remain valid until the end of each academic year; to continue being recognized as a student organization, the student organization must renew its registration through a prescribed process.

Article 9 (Report of Changes) If any change needs to be made in the bylaws, organization, or other important matters of a student organization, approval must be obtained from the student organization's faculty advisor.

Article 10 (Restriction and Prohibition of Activities) If a student organization's activity violates the Statutes of the University or these regulations, the President of the University may take any of the following actions:

1. Dissolution of the student organization
2. Suspension of activities for a certain period of time
3. Other necessary measures for educational purposes

Chapter 3 On-campus Assembly

Article 11 (Definition) An on-campus assembly shall refer to an assembly hosted by a student organization exclusively for the students of the University without involving any non-POSTECH organization or representative.

Article 12 (Application for Assembly) Any student organization wishing to host an on-campus assembly must submit a Proposal for Student Activity (Form 1, attached) to its faculty advisor and obtain his/her approval no later than three days prior to the expected assembly date and submit a copy of the aforementioned Plan to the Undergraduate Student Affairs Team.
